

Land of Corihor

Ether 14:26...Shiz did pursue Coriantumr eastward, even to the borders by the seashore, and gave battle...

Ether 14:27 Shiz began to flee before the armies of Coriantumr; and they fled to the land of Corihor, and swept off the inhabitants before them, all them that would not join them.

Ether 14:28 And they pitched their tents in the valley of Corihor; and Coriantumr pitched his tents in the valley of Shurr. Now the valley of Shurr was near the hill Comner; wherefore, Coriantumr did gather his armies together upon the hill Comner, and did sound a trumpet unto the armies of Shiz to invite them forth to battle.

Ether 15:8...he came to the waters of Ripliancum, which, by interpretation, is large, or to exceed all; wherefore, when they came to these waters, they pitched their tents; and Shiz also pitched his tents near unto them

Ether 15:10...the armies of Coriantumr did press upon the armies of Shiz that they beat them, that they caused them to flee before them; and they did flee southward, and did pitch their tents in a place which was called Ogath.

Ether 15:11...the army of Coriantumr did pitch their tents by the hill Ramah; and it was that same hill where my father Mormon did hide up the records unto the Lord...

Correlations with the Land of Corihor and physical evidence in southeast Quintana Roo.

- Hill Comner is close to the eastern seashore
- Ripliancum is associated with the eastern seashore
- Ripliancum is close to Hill Comner
- The proposed hill near Dzibanche is the highest and most prominent hill in Quintana Roo
- The valleys on both sides of the proposed hill Comner add credence to this layout.
- The massive waters system in and around Chetumal Bay justify the expression, "large or to exceed all"
- Comers distance and direction from hill Achotal-Ramah corresponded well with the Book of Mormon text
